Spanish Gap Year students are 18+, open-minded, adventurous and willing to try new things. Gappers must be willing to step out of their comfort zone to discover new experiences. Gappers are choosing to participate in Spanish Gap Year of their own volition. Gappers must be willing make a determined effort during their activities, with their peers, host families and host community to behave adequately and politely. Gappers should be aware of their own physical or health limitations and ensure that Spanish Gap Year is the right fit for them. Gappers can discuss any concerns with a member of the team so that we can advise on how we can accommodate their needs. During the program, gappers will be involved in decision making and planning and will be expected to show initiative in relation to problem solving and finding out information. Gappers should be willing to self-govern when necessary - takings decisions, making plans and helping to build their own experience through our program. Gappers will always abide by the Spanish Gap Year Participation Rules, Conduct & Behavioral Policies and Safety Rules.
